*The jazz room comes as a surprise amid all of this early 20th century sophistication – at once chummy and expansive, vibrant and sedate...Yet the room swings. Suzanne Lorge – All about Jazz-New York

*If you're looking for a comfortable, classy, and hot new jazz space, Enzo's Jazz is the place to be and be seen. Roberta E. Zlokower –

Friday, March 7th - Janice Friedman

www.janicefriedman.com

with: Janice Friedman – vocals and piano
Martin Wind - bass
Jed Levy - tenor sax
Bryson Kern – drums

*This is a musician with chops to burn on two instruments—piano and voice, with a deep well of compositional as well as improvisational ideas, many muses but a very individual style. Just listen.....- Andrea Canter, Jazz Police and Jazz Ink, May 2007

*New York pianist and singer Janice Friedman has a most agreeable, accessible style as a pianist and singer. That style -- which falls into the melodically-rich, rhythmically-flowing modern mainstream category -- is clearly on display on Friedman's 2006 CD, "Swingin' For the Ride" (Janika Musik). - Zan Stewart, New Jersey Star Ledger, September 2007

*Widely recognized for her excellent jazz piano mastery, she has added vocalizing to her performing talents, the fine results of which are evident on "Swingin' for the Ride" (Janika Musik – J82105). This is definitely a swingin' ride from Friedman and her crew, one that grows more savory with each return visit.Joe Lang, The Jersey Jazz Society, May, 2007

John DiMartino – piano
Christopher Higgins – bass
Mark McLean – drums

*A wonderful singer..!- Jerry Lewis

..Luss has indeed found her heart. And, as demonstrated on quite possibly the finest-to-date *interpretation of Alan and Marilyn Bergman's 'How Do You Keep The Music Playing?' She knows how to break it with excruciating tenderness. - Christopher Loudon, JazzTimes

*..Ms. Luss shows that she is a superior jazz singer, whether being sensual on "Baby Don't You Quit Now," finding surprising life in a faster-than-usual "Over the Rainbow," or swinging on "Our Day Will Come." -Scott Yanow, All Music Guide- 2007
